

MESSAGEGEARS MESSAGE

Cross-Channel Orchestration for Super Senders

Say goodbye to data friction

Enable Email and Mobile Experiences That Get Noticed for all the Right Reasons

Marketing clouds and remote ESPs are stuck in the '90s when it comes to giving marketers access and control of their customer data. MessageGears Message opens up a world of new possibilities for today's marketer, allowing them to access all of their data and activate that in real time to create cross-channel marketing programs they'd only been able to dream about before.

Say Goodbye to Data Friction

It shouldn't take days or weeks to get a campaign or program to launch. Work faster and more efficiently by using the latest data in real time.

Marketers can 'Dream & Do'

With Accelerator™ technology, you'll create cross-channel customer experiences that aren't possible with any other platform.

Create 1:1 Personalization to Millions

It shouldn't be hard to send messages that make every customer feel unique. Easily create virtually unlimited variations of a message.

ACCESS AND ACTIVATE CUSTOMER DATA QUICKLY & EASILY
